

LATE NIGHTS EARLY MORNINGS

ARTIST STATEMENT

From The Artist — Late Nights Early Mornings

LATE NIGHT

“Do you long for the cover of darkness? When the hazy evening slumbers and the slacker poets come out from under the bleachers —the neon lights create a thousand suns and the streets are home to seekers, strangers and pulsing promise. When we sacrifice our pillows on the altar of discovery. If you feel this, align your senses toward the midnight hour and press play.”

EARLY MORNING

” Are you light in waiting? Are you the stirring before the dawn, the whispers and the rustles? When even the most determined of searchers has unclenched their fists from the edge of the night and pulled the covers over their heads. It is the quiet moment between consciousness and dreaming —Are you that sentry? If this is you, press play and let LNEM keep you company as you herald in the new world.

IT IS NOT WHAT LNEM IS. IT IS WHO YOU ARE. IT IS WITH YOU. WHEREVER YOU ARE.
